"Lance de Los Reyes" at Vito Schnabel Gallery, New York

The artist Lance de los Reyes died last year at the age of 44. Best known for his street art, De Los Reyes also left behind a complex oeuvre of paintings and drawings that explored motifs linked to mysticism, the divine, and parallel universes through an intricate lexicon of symbols. (He was also a lifelong friend of the dealer Vito Schnabel.) This exhibition brings together many of De Los Reyes's visions, which synthesized styles from Street Art, medieval manuscript illumination, and Surrealism.

Location: Vito Schnabel Gallery, 455 West 19th Street, New York

Price: Free

Time: Tuesday-Saturday, 10 a.m.-6 p.m.
