

How Artist Jordy Kerwick turned his life upside down

by Lisa Boudet
September 19, 2021

Today I am meeting artist Jordy Kerwick at his studio in the South of France to learn more about his journey into art and better understand his creative process.

The self-taught Australian artist began painting in 2016, he quickly found himself at the center of international success: He has shown at galleries in Melbourne, London, New York, Tokyo, and Paris.

Special thanks to Jordy and Rachael for showing us around!

Thanks so much for watching!